REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Summer 2010 will prove to be our best summer camp offerings to date. The return of familiar and fun camps with a few new twists and exciting ideas will challenge every age. GCT strives to train new and old generations of theatre practitioners... and what a great time to do it, over the summer!!

Pre-Registration is important to ensure the success of our camps, so please, if at all possible, call the office to make sure your reservation is recorded. Walk in are accepted if there is room. All camps require a minimum of 12 participants for them to make. You will receive notification to confirm your registration close to the camp start dates!

Come to the theatre and explore your inner creativity and talents!
